Welcome - Adam Stein

Old Business - Adam Stein

The updated by-laws available are for viewing at <https://www.sherandoband.org/2024bylaws>. Board voted unanimously to send the document to the general membership, with a general membership vote in February.

Updates are primarily concerned with calendar-oriented changes and copy edits, as well as some clarification of some board roles.

2025 Spring Trip Updates - Melissa Cotton

Melissa Cotton, who is heading this planning effort, estimates that the entire 3-day trip to Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida, which is expected to be from April 8-10, 2025, would cost participants between approximately $500 and $550 each. Chaperones may end up paying more for lower room occupancy. The trip would cover all meals, except for those on the bus on the trip to and from the resort, as well as all lodging, transportation, and park admission fees. There is an option for the band to march before the Magic Kingdom's traditional 3 p.m. parade. To apply for this option, the band must send a video of one of its performances to qualify. Also, Cotton said the application process must begin at least a year before the trip.

Note: this trip does not coincide with Spring Break 2025, so participating students will miss several days of school.

The board voted unanimously to commit to planning for this trip.

New Business

Catherine Dodrill suggests selling all the parade bibbers, because we have so many. That will open up space for other uses. Dodrill noted the band also needs more tuxedo pants.

Treasurer Report - Sandy Smith (bookkeeper)/Danielle Jones - see attached information

YTD and December. In December, accounts were down a little over $5,000, but for the year-to-date, the association's income is up by $5,512.

Other

Noelle Callas noted that when indoor percussion did a 40-minute appearance outside Bank of Clarke County (at the corner of Fairfax Pike and Double Church Road in Stephens City) toward the end of the year to raise money, almost $500 was raised. She recommended doing similar events in the future.

Callas also noted the association will get a check of $390.41 from Newtown Printing tomorrow from its December fundraiser.

And, the board learned Winchester Elks Lodge provided a $1,000 donation to the March AIA (Sherando Showcase) competition being hosted at Sherando by the boosters.

Adjourned at 6:59 p.m.
