Old Business / Committee Updates

Advancement Update

3/23 - 5 Star Auto Spa/Frenchies - no report as of yet

4/13 - Five Guys Spirit Night - 4-8 p.m. The restaurant will do 20% of sales back to the band. Need to go in-person and show the flyer, or mention that you're there for the band for this to count for the band.

2024 Sherando Showcase Totals/Recap - Kayla Wright - Total profit: $11,076.41 for 2024. Kayla said we hosted over 500 performers in the building and had about 480 paying spectators. There were 34 units this year to last year's 26. Profit was about $1,000 more than last year - that's if we don't have to pay a custodial expense.

Sam Kilkus noted that the boosters may want to alter signage to make performer entrance areas clearer, too.

Kayla said multiple directors complimented Sherando, saying how great the experience here is. AIA loves us hosting. She also offered invited boosters to offer any feedback to keep improving the event.

Band Director Joel Cosner said we have awesome people, and this event shows it off.

Touch-A-Truck Update - May 18 - Sandy Smith - Have 23 trucks so far. She's still working on getting more, and she doesn't have the helicopter yet. Maddie's Frozen Custard and Josh's Sweets & Eats are scheduled to come. If you have any leads on construction vehicles, etc., let her know. Ciara Ray will put the word out about the events on community social sites.

Golf Tournament Update - May 24 - Guy Curtis - Guy said there are about 11 teams right now, and he hopes for at least 18 teams. He said he would like 27, but with 18, we will still have a good showing. Some volunteers will be needed to help guide teams and sell raffle tickets. IHeartMedia is a sponsor and will run ads promoting the tournament. A lunch sponsor is still needed. He estimates the lunch will cost $1,500 to $2,000. If a business can't do much, it can always donate a gift item or a raffle item. He added that if people aren't interested in golfing they can still support the band by buying separate tickets for music later in the evening. Sam Kilkus recommended doing a digital blitz to plug the music, too. Hope to have sponsorships in by the end of the month. Information about playing, sponsorships, and the evening of music with Crosswinds is available at https://golf.sherandoband.org/.

Spring Trip 2024 Updates (Toby's Dinner Theater, Columbia, Maryland) - Kids need to turn in permission slips if they haven't already. Students need to report for the trip at 3:30 p.m. on April 12. Show is at 6 p.m.

New Business

HundredX - Fundraiser Kickoff - Adam Stein presented about the fundraiser.

This begins today! Every brand quality review completed earns the band $1.60 each. Each participant can do a maximum of 75 brand reviews (up to 25 a day.) That's a $120 value per person. There's over 3,000 brands/companies to review. Each review takes 60-90 seconds. It's SUPER EASY to do - it's the easiest fundraiser of the year. Anyone over the age of 18 can participate. It's pretty straightforward. No identifiable information about participants is shared, only demographic information. Names will not be sold to the companies using this. Participants will only get communications from HundredX during the month of the fundraiser - and those are just reminders.

Sign up by texting FEEDBACK to 90412. It'll ask if you want your name to be shared with the benefiting organization - please do this. Only the boosters will see this. A link to sign up will be in the newsletter and a separate communication about this fundraiser will go out to the boosters' membership.

This can raise up to $10,000 for the band, and the money raised would arrive just in time for the fall marching season. Last year, it earned the band $7,700. Adam said he would love for that total to be surpassed this year.

Fundraiser ends on May 7. Information is available online at https://www.sherandoband.org/hundredx-fundraiser/

Percussion Director Report - Scott Kittrelll - Outside of indoor wrapping up, not much to report. He has the floor from this year's indoor competition up for sale and is doing budget planning for next year.

Guard Director Report - Kayla Wright - She said winter season is wrapping up tomorrow. She will go to middle schools soon to recruit, and potentially will set up an Aylor Middle School guard for next year. She said she will still have 8th graders train at Sherando, as she did this year. Training for fall will begin the week of the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival. She said she and Band Director Joel Cosner will hopefully finalize some fall music and the show title within the next couple of weeks. She said they will also start fitting for the uniforms in the next week or two. Uniforms for this fall/winter are coming from a company called DPG from Texas. Sam Kilkus - The company has a size chart, too! Kayla said that previous years' props, uniforms, etc. are all up for sale, because the band program is trying to make money before spending any.

Band Director Report - Joel Cosner - He was a District 5 VBODA adjudicator in March and will adjudicate a jazz event in Loudoun County, soon (he's always wanted to adjudicate). He said he is very proud of how the indoor groups represented the program this past weekend at Atlantic Indoor Association Championships in Hampton, Virginia. Our teams are up against groups from all over Virginia, and some from North Carolina, and as a result, our teams are among some incredible competition levels. The teams are on a really good trajectory, he said.

Fall marching show planning has been underway for about a month or so. He's visiting middle schools this week. He said the band is slated to have 45-50 new members next year, but the band itself will probably be around the same size as this year - maybe 5-10 students more.

Adjournment - 7:45 p.m.
