- Tailgating budget-Team agreed that we will monitor the budget to account for future needs.
- Guard costume budget—a little over but they have everything they need at this time and they will be doing additional fundraising.
- Insurance increase—$320.00 to $432.00 increase for all insurance (yearly cost) Sandy Smith to call to inquire about this to see if we can receive any sort of discount.

- Old Business
 - Tag Day recap- over 11K raised. Joel will make more maps for Wakeland the next time since we were unable to get through the whole neighborhood and it received good profit.
 - Corporate sponsorship update – Kevin
 - Parade banner -- Kevin would like to get a new sponsorship banner. We still need to get the sponsors on the banner and the trailer. Brian reached out to Kevin about this. Sam will also reach out to Fast Signs.
 - Kevin bought football tickets.
 - First Competition!
 - Volunteer needs—Sign up Genius was sent out. Will need board assistance during this competition.
 - Food for tailgating plan—September 24th - -team will do Hotdogs.
 - Other – Photos- Christina to reach to Ali Cox to see if we can get the old photos and get a cost from Tim Metz’s wife for new photos.
- New Business
 - Homecoming concessions--
 - Budget—Hamburger, hotdogs, chips, candy, juice boxes. We have a budget for this already. Sam to schedule Health inspection with the county this week. Sandy Cadd to see if we can use her mom’s cotton candy maker. Will need to keep a tally on food for next years event. Sam to reach out to Mike Bachman to see if he had numbers from last year.
 - What do we want to serve? (Considerations for Covid?)—see above
 - Volunteer needs—will need help
 - Safe Halloween times—12-4 pm. Sandy Cadd in charge of concessions.
 - Advocacy – Chris to discuss at main booster meeting
 - Alamo Fundraiser—Kevin has secured us a theatre for free. Target date early December. Sam to determine how soon the Alamo would need to know our movie selection. Chris to reach out to Beth at the Alamo.
